

Notice Regarding Reasons For Not Accepting The Application Form Of Executive Engineering (JE), Assistant Engineer, Executive Engineer & Accounts Clerk Post

Few application forms have not been accepted after cross-verification of the application form data with the certificates & documents attached with the application form that were sent to BSEIDC Office for recruitment of Executive Engineering (JE), Assistant Engineer, Executive Engineer & Accounts Clerk posts. Applications have been rejected on the basis of mismatch of information from application form with the certificates & documents provided and due to non-fulfilment of the required application criteria. Following are the reasons of not accepting the application form of the candidates. Candidates can claim for their candidature with the required documents. If the application has been rejected for more than one reason, then the candidate must provide the required claim documents for each rejection reason, in order to claim his/her candidature. Candidate's claim should reach BSEIDC office, Patna on or before 24th October, 2013, 5.00 pm only. No claim will be accepted after the claim duration. No verbal claim will be accepted through phone call.

1. Age Criteria –

Application has not been accepted of such candidates who are of more age than the specified age for each category. In this case, age of retired applicants has been considered. (Refer BSEIDC recruitment advertisement to see the age criteria for each post and age relaxation)

Claim Document Required – Candidates can claim with a copy of the age proof if they find difference in their actual age and age shown in the “Not Accepted” sheet.

2. Educational Qualification Marksheet OR Certificate /DCA/Equivalent & Tally Course Certificate –

Application has not been accepted of such candidates who have not mentioned Diploma/B.Tech Civil & DCA/Equivalent course for Executive Engineering (JE) post, B.Tech (Civil) for Assistant Engineer and Executive Engineer post & B.Com/CA Inter/DCA/Equivalent & Tally course for Accounts Clerk post in their application and have neither attached the required course certificate.

Applicants who have mentioned their required educational details but have not attached certificate, who have not done Diploma/B.Tech Civil/B.Com/CA Inter/DCA/Equivalent/Tally course, who have done DCA/Equivalent/Tally course but the institute name given in form is not matching with the certificate, whose DCA/Equivalent/Tally course is not clear from the certificate, whose passing year is not clear from the certificate, who have not given relevant computer course certificate, who have not passed the required course, who have still not completed the course, who have done part time course, have also been rejected.

Claim Document Required – Only such candidates who had mentioned their educational details & computer course, institute name & grade/marks details in the application form can claim with a copy of their authentic Diploma/B.Tech (Civil). B.Com/CA Inter & DCA/Equivalent and Tally course certificate. Candidates who had not mentioned their educational & computer course details in the form cannot claim.

3. Experience Criteria –

Applicants who have not mentioned their experience details in the application form or have mentioned less experience than required & have also not attached certificate have not been accepted. Applicants who have mentioned less experience in the form but have attached additional certificates, have not been accepted.

Claim Document Required – Only such candidates who had mentioned their required experience details in the application form can claim with their experience certificate. Candidates who had not mentioned their experience details or had mentioned less experience in the form cannot claim.

4. DD Yes/ No –

Application has not been accepted of such candidates who have not given their demand draft or have given photocopy of demand draft. (Refer BSEIDC recruitment advertisement to see the demand draft requirement details for each category).

Claim Document Required – Only such candidates who had submitted their demand draft earlier, can claim with a photocopy of their demand draft or by giving details of their demand draft through letter within the claim duration.